

August 2, 2022 Ida Public Schools Bond Proposal Election 4.94 Mills

When school funding changed in 1994, schools began looking at alternative ways to fund needed physical improvements. The money allocated from the State was not enough. School bonds became a part of the financial structure for most school districts. Between Wayne, Lenawee and Monroe county, there are 3 school districts without debt, Ida being one of them. The Q and A on our website goes into more detail as to why a bond is needed. The following are highlights for each building and does not reflect the entire project.

Elementary Highlights:

- PreK education expansion
- 7 classroom addition with corridor and bathrooms
- New double entry main entrance that enters directly into a new main office and offices (Safety must)
- Every classroom, hallway and office with new floors, ceilings, millwork, and doors
- Replace one boiler and all piping (Piping is original 72 years old)
- Replace all unit ventilators (Current units are original and replacement parts not available)
