2020-2021

COURSE STRUCTURE

- In person days – lecture, demonstration, discussion, written assignments, videos, partner/group activities, and assessment (tests/quizzes)
- Virtual days – students complete homework assignments and/or assignments posted on Google Classroom.

ABSENCES/ MAKE-UP WORK

Since you will have limited days in this class due to COVID-19, it is important that you are here on your assigned days and on time. If you are absent for any reason, it is YOUR responsibility to check the absent work folder and ask to find out what you missed. If you have any questions about the assignment, ask me before or after class. Turn in all absent work in a timely manner.

*If you are absent for a test or a quiz, you have up to one week to make it up!

*Late assignments will count for 50% credit.

GRADING POLICY

Grades will be determined by the number of points that you earn by the number of points possible. All grades are in points and total 100%.

Participation

Class assignments & homework

Tests & Quizzes

Projects

Grades will be posted in a timely manner on HAC for students and parents to view at their convenience.

Home Access Center (HAC): Check HAC regularly for updated grades. Even though we use Google Classroom for some assignments and feedback, official grades will always appear on HAC.

GOOGLE TRANSLATE

Any use of Spanish Translator will result in an automatic ZERO (0) point for any assignment or project.

Use a classroom or online dictionary, such as www.Spanishdict.com or www.wordreference.com to look up one word/phrase at a time.

(If you are looking up a VERB, look for an infinitive form –ar, –er, –ir and conjugate it yourself. DO NOT use the word if it does not end in –ar, –er, –ir)

CLASSROOM EXPECTATIONS

Participation

Active participation and listening is important to the success of mastering a language. Sleeping, refusing to participate or disrupting the class is not acceptable.
